

CAMPAIGN PUNCH . . . Former Councilman and Mayor Nick Drale, who is seeking return to the City Council on the April 9 ballot, is emphasizing the "punch" in the new voting system this year, asking voters to punch their ballots for him. The new system uses punch cards and electronic counting.

Ex-Councilman in Bid To Return to Council

Seeking return to the city Council, where he served a total of 16 years, is Nicholas O. "Nick" Drale, a North Torrance resident for 30 years. Drale, formerly employed at the Torrance Works of Columbia-Geneva Steel, has operated his own real estate and insurance firm in downtown Torrance since 1955. He and

Three Men Hold Up Finance Co.

Three young men, one brandishing a revolver, held up Circle Finance Co., 3126 Pacific Coast Hwy., Friday evening, getting away with $496. The suspects entered the office just before closing time, 6:57 p.m., ordering employees to open the safe. Next, the three ordered the office attendants into an adjacent room where they were forced to lie down on their stomachs. Suspects clipped telephone cords before making their getaway. They were described as men in their late 20s. One of them was nicknamed "Speed."

Convention Delegation Announced

Capitol News Service
SACRAMENTO — The names of a 174-member California delegation to the Democratic convention have been filed with Secretary of State Frank M. Jordan by Attorney General Thomas C. Lynch, who heads the delegation. The Lynch delegation officially is uncommitted, but is known to be strongly pro-Johnson.

Among those listed are Congressman Cecil R. King, who represents the 17th Congressional District; State Senator Ralph C. Dills of Gardena; industrialist Leo M. Harvey; and Mrs. Carmen Warschaw, Harvey's daughter. Los Angeles Councilman Billy G. Mills, now seeking a seat on the Board of Supervisors, also is a member. Delegates at large include former governor Edmund G. Brown and actor Gregory Peck.

Scholars Named at Redondo

Sertoma Club Santas Surprise Center Youth

Christmas came early this year for youngsters at the Torrance Children's Center. The little ones were on the receiving end of $1,000 worth of new toys and equipment donated and delivered by the Sertoma Club of Torrance.

Members of the club, who had previously donated $1,000 to Torrance Unified School District for dental, psychological, and welfare expenses of needy youngsters, came forth with their latest gift when they learned that the center was unable to purchase toys and equipment out of its limited budget. The club had asked Mrs. Pat Freeman, center director, to list the items the center needed. When they received

Redondo Beach to Honor City Clerk Fred Arnold

A testimonial banquet honoring Redondo Beach City Clerk Fred M. Arnold will be held tomorrow at the Plush Horse Restaurant, according to the sponsoring Redondo Beach Chamber of Commerce.

Titled "20 Years of Devotion," the banquet will pay tribute to Arnold for his 20 years of service to the city of Redondo Beach and its citizens, while serving as City Clerk.

Chairman of the event is Lynne A. Frantz, past president, who just concluded a term as foreman of the Los Angeles County Grand Jury. Admission is by reservation only. There will be no tickets sold at the door, Frantz said.

ARNOLD was born in Goldfield, Nev., May 19, 1918. He is a graduate of Redondo Beach elementary schools, Redondo Union High School, and the University of California at Los Angeles.

He served as a Second Lieutenant with the United States Army Infantry in World War II. The veteran City Clerk is a past president of the Redondo Beach Co-ordinating Council and the Redondo Beach Rotary Club. He has served as chairman of both the Cancer Drive and the March of Dimes — 10 years in the latter post.

HE IS a member of the Redondo Beach Elks Lodge 1378, Redondo Beach Masonic Lodge, South Bay American Legion Post 184, Redondo Beach Eagles Lodge, Redondo Beach Co-ordinating Council, Municipal Finance Officers Association, California Society of Municipal Finance Officers.
